Baldwin of Evanston, scheduled property said to be worth $45,000 and signified his willuscoses to sign the puglist's $30,000 bond along with Mrs. Tina Johnson, the tighter's mother. It being too tate to investigate the title to the property tonight, Judge Carpenter of the United States district court said he would take up the case tomorrow.

Albert C. Jones, a real estate dealer, who signed $30,000 honds for Jack Johnson in an attempt to obtain the negro puglist's release from tail, was today sentenced to one year in juli for contempt of court by Federal Judge Landis. Jones it was charged, scheduled property which he had deeded to his wife. Judge Landis declared Jones had "wilfully and maliciously lied under oath in court in relation to his ownership of the property." Jones will appeal, he said.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 14.—C. J. Crawford, a negro policeman, said here today that he is going to Chicago Saturday prepared to put up $200,000 bail if necessary to obtain the freedom from jalk of Jack Johnson. He says two white Cleveland men will provide the collateral, but will not divulge their names.

According to Crawford, efforts to release Johnson were started here by a number of negroes with white wives.

954 for Wood Cut by the Anaconda Mining Co.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14—The government began suit here today against lannes B. Hazgin of this city to recover $2.512,354, representing the value of cordwood and other timber alieged to have been cut wrongfully by the Anaconda company from national land in Montana, between August, 1884, and January, 1896.

United States District Attorney Wise, who brought the government's suit, presented its complaint charging that during the twelve-year period mentioned the Anaconda company, without permission out and removed in all 1.335,714 cords of wood, aggregating in value the amount for which the government sues.

The Anaconda company, was a partner-ship composed originally of the defendant Hazgin, Marcus Daly, George Hearst, Phoebe A. Hearst and Lloyd Tevis.

A separate count in the complaint adds that a co-parimership composed of John Caplice and Albert W. McCune, the Anaconda Fluming company and the Anaconda Mining company was consected in the cutting and removal of 717,587 cords of wood from the Montana lands without permission.
